

Michigan News Tersely Told

Crystal Falls—A third wage reduction made by the Steel corporation brings the wages of common labor in mines and mills down to a basic wage of $3 a day.

Big Rapids—This city is to get a new armory. A proposition to bond for $10,000 carried by the necessary two-thirds vote at a special election. The state will contribute $35,000.

Ionia—Dr. William R. Cutter, 97 years old, the first dentist to practice in Ionia, is dead. Dr. Cutter was engaged in the drug business here for nearly 50 years. He retired five years ago.

Ludington—Rasmus Rasmussen, 65, former merchant, died in the baseball park grandstand of apoplexy when the Ludington team drove in seven runs in one inning and won the game against Grand Rapids.

Lansing—The state health department has been given complete authority over the health divisions of all state institutions. Dr. R. M. Olin, head of the state department of health, will act in a supervisory capacity over the institutional physicians.

Wheeler—Orbie Darling, a teamster working on the paving construction on the main street of this town killed a rattlesnake in the street. Years ago snakes were common about here in swampy places but this is the first rattler seen in this vicinity for several years.

Grand Rapids—Dr. C. W. Munger, superintendent of Columbia hospital, Milwaukee, Wis., has been appointed as successor to Dr. Merrill Wells, medical director and superintendent of Blodgett Memorial hospital since June 1919. Dr. Wells's resignation becomes effective October 1.

Ann Arbor—A total of 60,807 children and adults took part in activities at Ann Arbor's four municipal parks this summer, according to announcement by Supervisor L. W. Olds. This is the largest number to receive the benefits of outdoor playgrounds in the city's history.

Allegan—Gene Marcellus, 73 years old, a farmer who lives alone in a shack six miles west of this city, is still in a serious condition as the result of mistreatment at the hands of robbers. When he told the robbers that all his money was in the bank, they clubbed him.

Pontiac—Albert Wolpe, a painter, employed at the Wilson Foundry & Machine Co., was badly shocked and burned when painting an electrical tower at the plant. He came into contact with the heavily charged wires there. He was taken to the city hospital, where physicians gave him medical attention.

Lansing—Sheriffs, chiefs of police and prosecuting attorneys of Michigan will meet here Sept. 20-22, when it is expected that some method will be worked out to provide for co-operation between parole officers and county officials to give information about paroled prisoners.

Alpena—The McLouth steamer Scranton, cement carrier, sank beside the dock at the Huron Cement company's plant, while preparing to leave the dock with 15,000 barrels of cement. Investigation revealed a large hole in the hull of the ship, possibly caused by its striking a large stone while at dock.

Lansing—"The Crusade Lance" is the name of a new Michigan publication issued by the Detroit Tuberculosis Society. The "Lance" is devoted to the interests of the Modern Health Crusade in Detroit and Wayne County. There are already nearly 150,000 pupils enrolled in the modern health crusade in that county.

Alpena—Plans have been formulated by County Agricultural Agent O. O. T. Scheetz for the utilization of picric acid in land clearing operations in this county. The government recently has placed large supplies of this powerful war explosive on the market at low prices. Co-operative purchases are planned.

Dowagiac—A homing pigeon several days ago fell exhausted in the yard of Postmaster Frank Richey. Care restored it to flying strength and it was released, but returned to the Richey residence several hours later. The postmaster is anxious to learn its identity. A red rubber band on the left leg has the lettering "E-206."

Battle Creek—Dr. Edward Rawson, oldest local physician and longest in practice here, died at Nichols hospital, at the age of 84 years. Dr. Rawson was a prominent Chicago surgeon in his younger days, but his property and offices were wiped out by the great fire in 1871. This experience broke his spirit and he never quite "came back." Dr. Rawson never married and since the death of his sister, several years ago, had lived much like a hermit.

Flint—Suggestion that a new national highway to be known as the "Townsend" road, in recognition of good roads work by United States Senator Charles E. Townsend, be constructed from Mackinaw City to Mobile, Ala., was made by J. A. Roundtree, director general of the United States Good Roads association, before the Michigan Good Roads association in convention here. The proposal met with applause from delegates and it was said an effort would be made to adopt a resolution favoring the proposed highway.

Albion—Grape-growers in this section have started harvesting their crop, two weeks ahead of the usual time.

Grand Rapids—Steps are being taken by the city administration to bar jitney buses from streets on which street cars operate, says Fred H. Locke, city manager.

Alma—What is believed to be a small snake dropped out of a watch case when A. B. Scattergood, an Alma jeweler, opened it. It has been sent to M. A. C. for examination.

Kalamazoo—A straight jail sentence of 30 days without alternative of fine, was given to Floyd Harger, of Augusta, after he pleaded guilty to driving his machine while intoxicated.

Ludington—William Medaco, 18 years old, an Indian, was rescued by Edgar Stuart when a barn burned on the farm of Kennedy Johnson in Custer Township after being struck by lightning. Medaco was sleeping in the barn.

Charlotte—A report filed with Daniel W. Knapp, village clerk, shows that the municipal electric light plant at Sunfield is earning about $65 a month more than its expenses. The income from the plant is expected to retire bonds issued to construct it.

Allegan—Six of the eight survivors of Co. I, 4th Michigan Cavalry, elected S. F. Murphy, of this city, president, at the close of their twenty-sixth annual reunion. The company was in the regiment which captured Jefferson Davis at the close of the Civil War.

Kalamazoo—George Winslow, head of the Riverside Monument company, and Miss Sarah M. Howard, 47, a veteran Kalamazoo school teacher, eloped to Chicago, where they were just married. Winslow, who is 70 years old, has long been prominently identified with the politics of the city.

Lapeer—A romance that was born at the Michigan Home and Training school here developed into the marriage of Gertrude Hazel Hanahan, physical instructor, and Dr. Henry M. Delehanty, dentist. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Plamer at the Church of Immaculate Conception.

Pontiac—Needy members of the Quick family are provided for in an unusual will filed here for the late John Quick, Sr., who left an estate of $9,600. He created a trust fund, the income of which will be used for heirs in straitened circumstances. Friends and employees are given life use of a large farm.

Iron Mountain—John Rowe, of Norway, who shot and killed Leo Cant, 12 years old, also of Norway, when he caught him and some other boys in his vegetable garden, had his hearing here and was formally charged with murder. Rowe maintained he only shot to frighten the boys. Rowe is an ex-service man and is 27 years old.

Pontiac—Chase Osborn's feat of killing a bear with an axe and his bare hands isn't so much, according to an Oakland county sportsman, just back from the north Wisconsin woods. Guy Folsome, Milwaukee, member of a party in which Ross Thompson, Oakland supervisor, was roughing it, chased and killed a black bear in an automobile, according to Thompson.

Mt. Clemens—Two masked robbers entered the Margolies Inn, notorious Lake shore roadhouse, gagged and handcuffed the porter and made away with $9,000 in cash from the safe. The pair, well dressed and with handkerchiefs covering their faces, invaded the roadhouse shortly after the big Sunday crowd had left. They commanded Frank Bolivios, night porter, to throw up his hands and remain quiet.

Lansing—Lansing voters turned down a proposal to bond the city for $200,000 to erect a soldiers' memorial building, but endorsed four other bond issues which will increase the indebtedness of the city by $2,350,000. The issues which carried were: $1,650,000 for a municipal power and electric light plant; $100,000 for water works extension; $200,000 for sewerage systems, and $400,000 for paving. The vote was light.

Muskegon—Muskegon will issue $50,000 in bonds to provide for the unemployed for the rest of the year. This decision was reached after Merlin Wiley, attorney-general, ruled that a business depression was as great an emergency as a flood or fire. Under the Home Rule Act a city has authority to issue bonds without a vote of the people. When the budget for 1921 was made, in August last year, the business depression had not developed.

Saginaw—The soldier bonus bill will be passed at the December session of congress, is the belief of Congressman Joseph W. Fordney, chairman of the ways and means committee and Republican leader in the lower house. "One of the reasons for this belief is that, deducting what foreign countries owe us, 60 per cent of our debt is due in the next 20 months," said he. "The passage of the bonus bill is the only honorable thing to do. The boys deserve it and shall receive it."

Monroe—The Monroe Paper Products company, has started operations in its mammoth mill, the building of which was begun on March 24, 1920. The new company is capitalized at $1,000,000. Officers are: William R. Harris, president; W. M. Sawyer, vice-president; Thomas I. Ilgenfritz, second vice-president; Roy M. Sperry, secretary; G. A. Blum, treasurer; L. J. Meunier, superintendent. All are experienced men in the manufacture of paper. The average output per day of paper folding box board will be 75 tons, in sheets and rolls.

ERA OF WORLD PEACE FAR OFF

President Harding Outlines Policy of U. S. At Conference.

Washington. — President Harding has defined the policy which will guide the administration and its representatives on the disarmament question at the coming conference of the world powers.

With clarifying emphasis he dispelled Utopian illusions that the United States would enter the conference prepared to scrap its weapons and render itself defenseless.

Summed up the American attitude as stated by the president is this:

The day of permanent world peace is far off. The end of armed conflict may never come. Civilized government may never be able to scrap their navies and disband their armies. Nevertheless it may be possible to diminish the burdens of armament.

TO CONNECT TWO PENINSULAS

Doelle Tells Road Meeting Span Across Straits Planned.

Flint. — Plans are under way for the construction of a bridge to connect the upper and lower peninsulas of Michigan, according to John A. Doelle, of Marquette, recently elected a member of the state board of agriculture, who spoke before the thirteenth annual convention of the Michigan Good Roads association, in session here.

Grand Rapids was chosen as the 1922 meeting place by the delegates in the closing session.

Mr. Doelle stated that the bridge would be constructed across the Straits of Mackinaw and that something definite would probably be done within a year, if financial condition warrant. He did not reveal who was behind the project.

Cold Bitter Winter in Sight!

New York. — Women will wear sleeves on their lingerie and even night gowns are going to be longer and have sleeves in them according to a large manufacturer of women's apparel. It was said the style might be in anticipation of a cold winter.

Auto Accidents Cost $4,500,000.

New York. — An estimate that $4,500,000 was paid by life insurance companies in death claims from automobile fatalities during 1920 is published by the Insurance Press. Statistics quoted show that during the year the automobile caused 12,000 fatalities and 1,500,000 non-fatal injuries. Life insurance distributions for the year by companies operating in the United States and Canada aggregated $1,092,066,434, including death claims of all sorts.
